*To qualify you can be a direct descendant of someone with a Clan Macpherson surname, either through your father or your mother. You can be a spouse of someone eligible and a member. You can be child of a member and become a junior member if under 18. Or if you are not eligible in one of these categories you can write a letter to our Chief, Sir William Macpherson requesting permission to join. If your surname is not Macpherson or one of the Clan associated families (any spelling), please state your grounds for claiming Clan Membership. (Grandfather was McPherson) All who are seeking membership are welcomed. Please feel free to ask for assistance to write your letter.

♦♦Adult sponsor must remain current with their annual dues until the Junior turns 18 years old.
